

TASTINGS OFFERED

Email courtney@courtneycochran.com for more details

Cabernet Sauvignon: The Power Wine

You own a power suit, shouldn't you also know a thing or two about its equivalent in the wine world? Cabernet Sauvignon is the long-lived grape variety behind top-notch French Bordeaux and blockbuster Napa Cabs. This tasting will acquaint you with some of its best examples and impart helpful tips for the next time you're looking to purchase a power wine.

Perfect for: corporate events, open houses/events, birthday parties

Wine and Cheese If You Please

This tasting promises to please with its gastronomically impressive combination of some of the most tasty cheeses available and top-notch wine pairings. From classic pairings such as Sauvignon Blanc and chevre to lesser known delights like Italian Barolo with Piedmontese truffle cheese, this tasting simply will not disappoint. The culmination is a mind blowing pairing of fabulous and famous dessert wine Sauternes with Roquefort: don't miss this!

Perfect for: corporate events, open houses/receptions, dinner parties

Think Pink

From rose to garnet to crimson, wines come in a pleasing array of variations on the color pink. With five wines offered in increasingly intense hues of pink, this tasting promises to be as pretty as it is delicious!

Perfect for: wedding showers, ladies lunches, fashion or trunk shows, women's functions

Pinot or Bust!

The much-lauded finicky grape variety has seen a surge of popularity since Sideways put it at the fore of America's wine consciousness. This tasting will walk you through wines from Pinot's native France as well as offerings from the New World, including New Zealand, Oregon and California.

Perfect for: corporate events, open houses/receptions, birthday parties

Getting to Know Merlot...All Over Again

Merlot may have a gotten a bad rap in Sideways, but it's actually one of the world's most esteemed grape varieties. Merlot is a critical ingredient in some of the greatest Bordeaux wines, and excellent examples are coming out of the New World as well. Come along for the ride as this tasting explores the Merlot you've been missing.

Perfect for: corporate events, birthday parties, holiday parties, open houses/receptions

Haute Stuff: Champagne & Sparklers

The beverage equivalent of a haute couture gown, Champagne is one of the most time-consuming wines to make. The effort that goes in is well rewarded with superior quality and outstanding food pairing flexibility. This tasting will walk you through Champagne production and, of course, appreciation in the form of a five-flight taste.

Perfect for: corporate events, anniversaries, holiday & New Years parties

The White Stuff: An All-White Wine Tasting

So many whites, so little time. This tasting explores the unique qualities of white wines from around the world. The ubiquitous Chardonnay is included, as are lesser known gems from the white family: Sauvignon Blanc, Riesling, Gruner Veltliner, Verdicchio, and Gewurztraminer.

Perfect for: daytime events, wedding showers, women's functions, fashion or trunk shows